

Please delay the vote on broadcast ownership until the public has had sufficient time to review the wording of the new FCC rule and discuss it. I, too, am shocked by the unusual, close-door procedures the FCC is using in regard to this vote and your blatant disregard for public participation in the process.